Activities

Kitten is Hiding: Action Rhyme

Kitten is hiding under a chair.
(Hide thumb inside other fist.)

I looked and looked for her everywhere.
(Hands by eyes, look left and right.)

I looked under the table, and under the bed.
(Bend down and look left and right.)

I looked around the corner,
(Pretend to peek around a corner.)

And when I said, "Come here little kitten, here's some milk for you!"
(Cup hands like a bowl of milk)

Kitten came running and calling, "Mew, mew, mew!"
(Run fingers up arm.)

Early Literacy Tip

Give everything a name. You can build comprehension skills early, even with the littlest child. Play games that involve naming or pointing to objects. Say things like, "Where's your nose?" and then, "Where's Mommy's nose?" Or touch your child's nose and say, "What's this?"
