

LIBRARY

Storytime

Brought to you by the Sioux City Public Library

Activities

My Name Is Joe

Hi, my name is Joe.
I work in a button factory
One day, my boss said,
"Joe, are you busy?"
I said no.
"Push the button with your right hand."
*(keep pushing with right hand;
add left hand, right foot, left foot, head)*
...
(Last time) One day, my boss said,
"Joe, are you busy?"
I said YES!

Button, Button, Who's Got the Button?

Stories

Press Here

by Herve Tullet

Something from Nothing

by Phoebe Gilman

Don't Press the Button!

by Bill Cotter

Pete the Cat and His Four Groovy Buttons

by Eric Litwin

Early Literacy Tip

When children say a phrase that is repeated throughout the book with you, they are involved with the story. They also learn the structure of stories-that they have a beginning, a middle, and an end. By making books and reading fun for your children, you are helping them connect reading with enjoyment. Researchers have noted this helps children stick longer with learning to read when they get to school.

Like us on Facebook to stay up-to-speed on Library events, displays, and services!
Facebook.com/SiouxCityPublicLibrary