My Hat

My hat, it has three corners.
Three corners has my hat.
And had it not three corners,
It would not be my hat.

Repeat replacing the word hat with "hmm"

*Repeat again replacing "hat" and "three"
with "hmm"*

*Repeat a third time replacing
"hat," "three," and "corners" with "hmm"*

Early Literacy Tip

Setting up achievable tasks for young children and clearly recognizing their successful completion helps to build children's confidence in themselves and their abilities. Children who feel good about themselves and believe that they can accomplish things are more likely to tackle new tasks with a positive attitude. Research suggests that children who are self-confident and believe that they can successfully complete tasks do much better in school.
